Adverbs tell more about a verb.

An adverb can tell more about a verb by telling how an action is done. Adverbs that tell how usually end in -ly.

Examples:

Hunter listened carefully to the rules.

Heaven ran quickly down the street.

Maggie sat quietly during the movie.

The wind blew wildly.

Suddenly the lights went out.

Allison eagerly awaited the announcement.

Cyle gently touched the puppy.